MONEY-SAVING ENERGY EFFICIENCY IDEAS

MAKE YOUR HOME MORE COMFORTABLE WITH THESE ENERGY SAVING IDEAS.

For over 50 years Alabama Power's rates have been below the national average, but there are still some easy things you can do to save money and energy, and make your home more comfortable.

1. Replace a dirty air filter in your furnace. They hamper airflow, making your system work harder to keep you comfortable.

2. Proper insulation can save you up to 30% on your heating and cooling costs. Add more insulation if you are finding cool spots around your home.

3. Set your thermostat to 78 degrees or above in the summer and 68 degrees or below in the winter.

4. Turn the temperature down on your water heater if it's over 140 degrees. Don't go below 120 degrees to keep bacteria from forming in the dishwasher.

Get more energy saving ideas for every room in your home. Scan the code with your phone or visit AlabamaPower.com/save.

The Marvel City is Ready to Make History...

History

Nestled in the lower foothills of the Appalachian range lies Jones Valley. Distributed throughout this area was black gold – no, not the liquid kind, but rich seams of coal. The ingredients for an industrial iron and steel making center, which would rival any in the United States, were in close proximity - iron ore, coal, and limestone. Rail lines crossed the area thereby providing easy movement of raw materials, people, and finished products. A city called Birmingham was emerging and blast furnaces were dotting the landscape.

Armed with a vision, a blueprint of a well laid out city to be called Brooklyn, and investors with at least $100,000 each, Henry Fairchild DeBardeleben (son-in-law of Alabama's first millionaire Daniel Pratt) embarked on his mission. On April 12, 1887 the first lots were sold, totaling more than $400,000 by the close of the day—the City of Bessemer was born! Henry had changed the name to something more appropriate for iron making (Sir Henry Bessemer in England had invented the Bessemer converter which changed the iron/steel making process). By the end of the first year, Bessemer's population had grown so rapidly, the town was dubbed "The Marvel City".

The town quickly established a functioning government, its own school system, water works, electric company, and a health director (which was very important). Construction of roads, houses, churches, and businesses to meet the needs of the workers and the new residents was started in earnest. The young town of Bessemer also bragged of The Hotel Montezuma; dismantled and shipped by rail to Bessemer, this building was actually the Mexican Exhibit at the1884-1885 New Orleans Exposition. DeBardeleben even had the forethought to care for future generations by establishing a park in the downtown area. Today, an original Viquesney Dough Boy Statue which honors those who paid the ultimate price in World War I is the focal point of DeBardeleben Park.

Tannehill Valley: Covered Bridge

A local newspaper of 1900 predicted that by the year 2000, the city of Bessemer would stretch 100 miles. By the 1920s Bessemer ranked the fourth largest city in Alabama and persisted in fulfilling that earlier newspaper prediction.

Tannehill on the Creek

Life continued in Bessemer. A search through old Bessemer newspapers reiterates the fact that history repeats itself with each generation. Newspapers reported good news, bad news, and a lot of advertisement; today television and other electronic devices provide the same type of information. Births, deaths, and weddings occurred; the flu bug seemed to transcend the years; accidents happened; elections were held; government officials were at odds; businesses came and went.

Over the years, however, poor leadership at local, state, and national levels brought recessions, depressions, and other economic woes to Bessemer. Fires destroyed many early landmarks, while heavy reliance on a few industries brought economic downturns as more jobs were outsourced and demands for some products dwindled or disappeared.

By the 1980s, Bessemer had reached 33% unemployment. Diversification of industry became the buzz word for survival. And diversify she did! New industry was recruited and small businesses were encouraged to grow. Jobs returned and the city once again began recovery from yet another recession.

And now, over 125 years later, the City of Bessemer still stands through many trials and tribulations! Most of the smoke is gone because the industries have changed Passenger trains no longer stop in Bessemer, many of the mines have been "worked out", and there are no longer livery stables or bicycle repair shops downtown to serve the citizens. But Bessemer still thrives! Why?

The true wealth of Bessemer lies in her people—those who came to create better lives for themselves and their families, those who stayed, and those who used their talents to continue a vision of the founders of the Marvel City. Today, entrepreneurship still flourishes and dreams for the city continue. The people of this city realize that the city is always changing, reforming, revitalizing, adapting—to meet the needs of a global economy. The people have survived over 125 years of change and so has the city!

A quote from The Bessemer Workman on June 13, 1900 provides timeless advice to the people of Bessemer for any generation: Show to the world that the Marvel City is alive and in the march of progress, that she knows no backward step, and here can be found a generous people, proud of their city, their progress, and anxious to let the world know of her success and the enterprise of her people.

The Marvel City is ready...Are You?

We Are Ready with HealthCare for You...

For nearly 50 years, Medical West continues to provide high quality health care to the residents of Bessemer and West Jefferson County. This local Bessemer hospital has seen many changes since it first opened as Bessemer Memorial in 1964. In 1973, Medical West became part of the Carraway system and was renamed Bessemer Carraway. In 2002, the hospital became UAB Medical West when it joined the UAB Health System. Most recently, the hospital became a healthcare authority (2006) and is now known as Medical West, an affiliate of the UAB Health System.

Medical West is a 300-bed acute care hospital offering a wide range of diagnostic, surgical, medical, and emergency services. Primary care physicians, specialists, and sub-specialists have offices located on the Medical West main campus. Residents of Hueytown, McCalla, Tannehill, Vance and Hoover benefit from the convenience of Medical West family practice and internal medicine health centers in their neighborhoods.

Over the past several years, the hospital has added many new services and new state of the art technology. The Medical West Advanced Wound Center, which houses two hyperbaric oxygen chambers, opened in August 2010. The clinic averages around 4,000 visits each year. In 2012, Medical West opened HealthWorks, an Occupational Medicine clinic that currently serves many of our local businesses with health care for their employees. Also in 2012, the hospital added a new 64 slice CT Scanner with Cardiac capabilities and Digital Mammography. Recent hospital renovations include the new Women's Center and a 25-bed Geriatric Psych Unit.

In addition to our local hospital we have the Medical West Healthworks Occupational Medicine Clinic, Medical West, Park West, Bessemer, Vance and Hueytown Health Centers. Add to these Brookwood Occupational Medicine-McCalla, Utmost Health Care Center, Gambro Health Care -Bessemer, Baptist Health Center-Bessemer, Middle Creek Emergency Care, and Tenet Healthcare-McCalla. Anything you, your family or your business needs as far as quality health care is ready to serve you.

We Are Ready For Development... Are You?

Submitted by Theodore J. vonCannon, Executive Director of the Jefferson County Economic and Industrial Development Authority

During the last one hundred and fifty years no community in the southern part of the United States has relied more on industrial production than the Birmingham-Bessemer Alabama region. It truly has been the lifeblood for growth for the entire region. And to a lesser degree that is still true however there has been great diversification of the workforce in recent years. Currently the strongest industrial and distribution growth numbers are in the West Jefferson County/Bessemer area. This growth is based on a number factors including: many available sites, existing buildings, utilities on site, great transportation access, a high quality work force, excellent labor-management relations with existing industries, very reasonable cost of doing business and most importantly very pro-business oriented governments.

There are presently thirteen industrial/business parks located within ten miles of each other in the Bessemer area. The parks range in size from 9 acres to 740 acres and are very diversified, and eleven of these parks are owned by private owners or by the city of Bessemer and have space available for upscale office operations, warehouse-distribution facilities and heavy and light manufacturing. Many of the parks have rail access.

In addition, the Jefferson County Economic Development Authority (JCEIDA) maintains and operates two large parks in the Bessemer area. The JCEIDA properties, known as Jeff Met, are first class operations that have a high quality clientele. Companies such as Home Depot, Mercedes Benz, Wells Fargo and Blue Cross-Blue Shield call Jeff Met home. Of the two JCEIDA parks, Jeff Met Lakeshore is primarily an office oriented data center site with approximately 120 acres available for development.

Bessemer is Ready for Retail Development....

Located near shopping mecas such as Letson Farms, Hoover's Galleria, The Summit, Downtown Birmingham, Tuscaloosa, all of which add to the uniqueness that is Downtown Bessemer, the area is a shoppers heaven. Surrounding the City are interstates which provide easy access to any shopping adventure. I459, I20/59, and Hwy 150 offer convenient paths to shops ready to serve you.

Retail developers will find a climate that is business friendly, from the State Government in Montgomery, the Jefferson County Commission, to the City of Bessemer. Mayor Kenneth Gulley and the City Council are working tirelessly to spread the word, Bessemer is open to business. Contact the City or the Chamber for information.

The business community working through the Chamber promotes the theme of Buy Bessemer First. We live by that policy and encourage our citizens to follow it, support our local businesses and shop local. Small business is the heart blood of any community and Bessemer is blessed with some of the best.

Retail customers look for convenience, quality, price and uniqueness. The Bessemer area has it all. Discount stores, major chains, local shops and small unique retailers. From sporting goods at one of the South's most noted stores, Simmons Sporting Goods, to the rare antique and hand made wares at the Paisley Pig, downtown Bessemer is a great shopping experience. Furniture row is downtown with Standard Furniture and As Is Furniture, United Textiles for those unique rugs and soft goods. Amazing and thrifty, that marks the downtown area. For an additional adventure in shopping roam northern Shelby, Bibb and eastern Tuscaloosa Counties.

We have great business leaders such as Jerry Cherner (Jefferson Realty), Keith Pennington (Medical West), B.K. "Skipper" Goodwin (First Financial), John & Faye Anderson (Manufacturing Packaging), Hank Tyler (Henry H. Tyler Enterprises), Don Holmes, Joe Adams (ADCO), Vaughn Burrell (Long Lewis) and many, many more. Small to Large businesses, retail to manufacturing, we have leadership at all levels. Always working for Bessemer are local business owners: Joni Holt (Holt Insurance), Anthony Underwood (Anthony Underwood Automotive), Billy Parsons (CPA), Stacey Craig (Bright Star) and Van Sykes (Bob Sykes BBQ). These are leaders by example.

In civic affairs the leadership continues with elected officials at all levels of government knowing that economic development is primary to making the area a true dream. The Mayor of Bessemer, Kenneth Gulley, is a past Chairman of the Chamber of Commerce. Sarah Belcher, a City Council member, is a Chamber Ambassador. The other members of the Council, Ron Marshall, David Vance, Donna Thigpen, Cleo King, Chester Porter, and Jesse Mathews all work for or own businesses in the area. These civic servants are area assets for our business community. Put the local leaders together with County Commissioner Jimmie Stephens, State Senator Priscilla Dunn, plus State Representatives Alan Farley and Lawrence McAdory, you have a team focused on growing the businesses in Bessemer and western Jefferson County.

Located at the intersection of major interstate highways, crisscrossed by rail lines, access to a vital waterway and having its own local airport, Bessemer is located in a business friendly area. Add to this our own Bessemer Airport, the most modern communications systems available (ATT), abundant electrical supply (TVA and Alabama Power), a duel water system (Bessemer Water and Birmingham Water), and all the natural gas you could ask for from Alagasco. The "corridor" from Bessemer to Tuscaloosa along I 20/59 ranks as one of the nation's top industrial development corridors in the nation. Most communities can only dream of what is available in western Jefferson County.

We Are Ready for Development,

Jeff Met McCalla consists of 734 acres with manufacturing operations and warehousing/assembly/and distribution facilities located there. This park is directly served by Norfolk Southern Rail main line.

Immediately adjacent to the McCalla Jeff Met Park is the new Birmingham Norfolk Southern Intermodal Facility. The McCalla Park is also located less than one mile from Intestate 20/59 and less than three miles from Interstate 459. Also, Mercedes Benz, North America is located less than 15 miles west of Jeff Met McCalla.

Location is everything and the western Jefferson County region has it all. Poised between Tuscaloosa and Birmingham on one of the fastest growing industrial development corridors in the nation, the Bessemer Area has the facilities and sites to attract a diversity of business expansion. We are ready to help you locate with other successful businesses.

With a county population of more than 600,000 residents, Jefferson County and the Bessemer area can provide the workforce and support services for any type of business. As the fastest growing area of Jefferson County, the Bessemer region looks forward to welcoming new businesses to the area, while providing support and assistance to existing companies. In addition, the Bessemer business community has an incubator for beginning businesses that helps small businesses get a start, its own airport for business use and a Mayor and City Council that are focused on bringing jobs and growth to the Bessemer area. Bessemer is a great place to work and live. Let us show you we are ready to help you grow.

We are Ready To Help Educate Your Work Force and Your Children

As parents, grandparents, uncles, aunts, etc., we should all be readily involved with our local schools. Do we know what is happening in the schools and do we hold the educators accountable? Do we read to our own children? Can we spend time helping a child read? Are we there on workdays and clean up projects? Do we support the teachers and administrators? As businesses, do we hire the educated work force we need?

Bessemer City, McAdory, Oak Grove, and Hueytown High Schools, as well as Bessemer Academy are ready to educate our next generation workforce. Partnered with Lawson State Community College and ITT Tech these high schools focus not only on preparing our students for college but for the technical skills industry requires. Our business community takes pride in our community schools and providing a ready work force.

Lawson State Community College impacts the region in a positive and professional way. Not only has it had a regional impact but it also impacts all of the cities located in our area especially Bessemer. Lives have been enriched because of the availability of education, training, and growth in our work force in this region due to Lawson State Community College. The entire western area business community praises Lawson State for its contributions to our economy. Maya Angelou said it this way, "I have learned that people will forget what you said, people will forget what you did, but people will never forget how you made them feel." Lawson State makes us feel capable, ready for success.

The other education shining light in western Jefferson County is ITT Technical Institute located at Exit 6 on I-459. It is a jewel in our economic development recruitment package. The faculty and staff at ITT Tech go about their service to the community with humility and professionalism. The employees follow the example of their leadership in this statement from Jonas Salk when he said, "I feel that the greatest reward for doing is the opportunity to do more."

With major universities located within driving distance, a young person can be ready for any career and this can be realized while staying close to home. The University of Alabama, Montevallo University, Samford University, Birmingham-Southern College, Miles College and the University of Alabama-Birmingham are outstanding education providers.

As homeowners and business owners, the better the school system is in our area, the more valuable our property becomes. Homeowners and business people know the value of a quality school and providing our children with a quality education. The Bessemer business community is doing those things that will improve the quality of education and the quality of the schools. This includes facing the difficult problems and making the hard decisions such as how to adequately fund our schools.

The Chamber's efforts include the Adopt-a-School program which is an easy way for local businesses to be involved in our schools. This takes some time but not much if any money. A business can be involved with the school of its choice in reading, mentoring, and participating with the students and teachers. This is a simple process that gets a company recognition and helps the schools at the same time.

It is appropriate that we remember the dedication and sacrifice of all those involved in the education of our children on the local level. Those that truly care about education are found working in the schools, helping teachers, and asking what more they can do. Bessemer business people have a selfish reason to be both supportive and involved with our schools. These young people will be the men and women who soon will be our employees, leaders, decision makers and bosses. They are the work force of the future and our job is to ready them for the future.

Bessemer Is Ready To Serve You Great Food.....

Dining in Bessemer is exceptional because you start with our two longest serving restaurants, The Bright Star and Bob Syke's BBQ. They are both on the list of places you have to eat in Alabama before you die. Try them and find out why they help make Bessemer ready to feed you and your family.

Since its inception in 1907, The Bright Star Restaurant has been located in downtown Bessemer, and it has been a fixture in Bessemer's Realty Building for 97 out of those 105 years. In a sense, The Bright Star has grown with downtown Bessemer, beginning as a 30 seat restaurant and having evolved into the 300 seat restaurant it is today. The Restaurant receives pedestrian traffic from individuals shopping at local merchants such as Simmons Sporting Goods, United Textiles, and Standard Furniture. The downtown location has increased its banquet business with large groups such as The Bessemer Board of Realtors and other civic organizations. Easy access off the I-20/59 Interstate exit 112 also enables The Bright Star to attract guests from Birmingham and Tuscaloosa as well as surrounding counties. Fortunate to be located in downtown Bessemer the Bright Star will make your dream dining come true.

Van Sykes continues the tradition that his parents began in 1956: great barbecue and exceptional customer service. Dining at Bob Sykes BBQ begins with the aroma of slow cooked meat greeting you as you exit your car. You enter to see a grill full of pork, beef, and chicken with their long time staff working tirelessly to help you get the best meal you can find. From ribs to cheeseburgers you can't go wrong. Sandwiches, BBQ plates, onion rings, fries, even large pickles are there for the tasting. Eating with Van and his staff you feel at home, they make the atmosphere cozy and warm. Located on the old Bessemer Super Highwy (9th Avenue in Bessemer) Bob Sykes is one of the places to eat before you die.

Add to them the many downtown cafes like Muffalletta's Pizza & Pasta, Kaylyns Soul Food and Boateng Cajun Creations and Bessemer's downtown is ready for you.. But there is more. Sports bars such as Magic City Grill and W. T. 's make watching sports much more enjoyable plus they have great burgers. If you are wanting country cooking Raggedy Ann's provides some of the best. Mr. Hot Dog and Sneaky Pete's have the best hot dogs around plus in Hueytown you will find Classic Burger, a must eat location. Many oriental restaurants such as the Jade Garden and China King are in the area as are many Mexican restaurants like Habanero's and San Antonio Grill. Catfish and hush puppies at Ezell's Catfish Cabin are excellent. Bessemer is ready and more than happy to share a meal with you.
