New Aviation Charter School Approved for Bessemer

By: Ruth Serven Smith, The Birmingham News

A new public charter high school is planned for the Bessemer Municipal Airport. The Alabama Aerospace and Aviation High School has received approval from the state public charter school commission and plans to open in the fall of 2022. “The aviation-focused public charter school will offer an immersive, industry-aligned education for an intentionally diverse student population designed to prepare them for future aerospace and aviation careers,” according to a news release. “I’m excited about what this school means for our communities, students, families, and broader workforce development in the state of Alabama,” said AAHS founder Ruben Morris in the release. “I’m looking forward to working with our partners and the community to build a school that will provide pathways for students to literally take flight in their academics and careers.” The school will open in 2022 in a temporary location at the Foundation of Life Church in Bessemer while a permanent facility is built at the Bessemer Municipal Airport, according to the release. The school initially hoped to open in Birmingham but was denied approval by the Birmingham Board of Education earlier this year. The school will serve students in grades 9-12 and hopes to enroll a freshman class of about 130 students, according to the release, and add a grade each year. Interested students will be given the opportunity to earn a private pilot or drone license before leaving high school. The school plans to partner with Delta Tech Ops, Auburn University School of Aviation, the University of Alabama at Birmingham Criminal Justice Department and Tuskegee University, among others.

Rescue Units Soon Available for Emergency Situations

By: Donald Jay Howton, The Western Star

The City of Bessemer has recently purchased two Demers ambulances to meet a growing need in emergency situations. The private ambulance services in the Bessemer Cut-Off have become fragile due to the lack of personnel in the Emergency Medical Services field. Mayor Kenneth Gulley met with Bessemer Fire Chief Randall McFarland, Battalion Chief Robby Hallmark, Lt. Stephen Parker to discuss this critical issue. Bessemer’s EMS is under the direction of Hallmark and Parker who will oversee the management of the response of the new rescue units. According to Hallmark, “These ambulances/rescue units will be used only for life threatening emergencies when the private ambulance services are unavailable.” The rescue units will be manned by members of the Bessemer Fire Department. The Bessemer Fire Department is preparing the ambulances/rescue units for the required state inspection, which will be conducted in the next 30 days. Following the certification, the ambulances will be ready for service. Mayor Gulley stated, “This service is so important to the health and safety of our citizens. I am grateful for the Bessemer City Council and the Bessemer Fire Department for working with me to make this a reality.”

The City of Bessemer is Restoring its Historic Preservation Commission

By: City of Bessemer, bessemeral.org

Mayor Kenneth Gulley nominated the following 7 Bessemer residents to serve as Historic Preservation Commissioners:

Alice Royal; Craig Rackley; Melanie Bouyer; Joe Openshaw; LaKenya Bend; Edward Wilson; and Ralph Ruggs.

The Bessemer City Council unanimously affirmed the nominations on Tuesday. Commission members serve without pay and will serve staggered terms. The city of Bessemer has a rich history with many historic structures and places. The reinstatement of the historic commission will assist the city in managing its historic inventory and promoting the city’s history. The Downtown Bessemer Historic District, in Bessemer, Alabama, is a historic district which was listed on the National Register of Historic Places in 1992.

Bessemer City Council Helps Community

By: Joshua Harris, The Western Star

Bessemer City Council President Cynthia Donald and council members Latricia Crusoe and Kimberly Alexander, brought the new school year in with style and pizzaz. They each held events in their respective districts and included the whole community, not just the children going back to school during this time of hardship due to the pandemic. The Christmas in July event was held by Bessemer City Councilwoman Kimberly Alexander and state Representative Louise Alexander. They gave away over $5,000 worth of school supplies, clothes, toys, shoes, and food to the community. Nurturing Golden Hearts also gave away over 50 boxes of vegetables. This year’s event was held at the Dunbar Center in Bessemer. Next year’s event will be held on July 3rd. Each year has a different theme; both Councilwoman Kimberly and Rep. Louise Alexander are accepting ideas from the public. To share your ideas about next year’s theme, please email Kim Alexander at dc2@bessemeral.org.

CHAMBER NEWS

Chamber of Commerce Association of Alabama Summer Conference

CCAA has a long tenure as the preeminent organization serving chamber of commerce professionals, and the chambers of commerce they represent, in the state of Alabama. The organization exists to strengthen the vital role local chambers of commerce play in economic and community development. CCAA Board of Directors work closely with Paige Hutto, President/CEO to build stronger chambers of commerce in Alabama through professional development, partnerships, and a united voice for business.

We are proud to have our president, LaTasha Williams, IOM to serve on the board of directors for this organization, which was established in 1997. Williams has worked closely with the CCAA's president/CEO and other chamber leaders to develop and empower chamber-aspiring chamber executives.

Mrs. Williams has the privilege of traveling throughout the state of Alabama and the country to support CCAA and represent the Bessemer Area Chamber of Commerce. Williams recently attended CCAA Summer Conference in Point Clear, Alabama. Over 100 attendees from across the state of Alabama and afar were present to sharpen their profession and network with like-minded professionals. The theme for the conference "Back to the Future....Getting Back to Our Future Starts Now". A few of the topics for the meeting were: "Intentional Membership Growth, Alabama Workforce Ecosystem, Reignite Volunteer Leadership and Development, and the Future of Chambers-What's Next?"

Hats off to CCAA President/CEO Paige Hutto and Brenda Ward for putting together a great conference and making sure everything ran smoothly!
